JOANNA ROB

Preferred name: Asia (pronounced Asha)
iamjoannarob@gmail.com ; www.asiajoannarob.com

I am a versatile early-career director and assistant producer with a passion for facilitation and international theatre. With a career spanning 3 theatrical contexts (Indian, Polish and British), I combine my first hand knowledge of cultural diversity, multi-lingualism and the performing arts to create unforgettable theatrical experiences.

Testimonials:

Asia is superbly organised—way more than most people I've worked with in theatre and elsewhere over 3 decades. Once you work with her, you'd want to find other opportunities to work with her again. That's what I am doing!

Ece Ozdemiroglu at Meteatra

During our work together, Asia felt less like an assistant director and more like a creative partner in crime. I would love to work with her again. Her energy and commitment motivated the cast and lifted the whole process.

Secil Honeywill for Borders

Asia is a committed, versatile, attentive and creative assistant director. It is an absolute joy to work with her—she is always aware of the needs of the room, and brings her eye for detail as well as her craft and enthusiasm to any project.

Victoria Gartner at Will&Co

*Asia got an unconditional offer to study on the prestigious MFA Directing. She is awaiting the results of her scholarship application.
